Our Government and Commercial Audits and Inquiries Services

Government and commercial audits and inquiries can be sensitive and potentially challenging moments in any organization's history. Providing effective responses can require professional guidance and support from experts experienced assessing and responding to these moments. Granite GRC's experienced professionals guide and support organizations as they respond to these audits and inquiries, assessing claims and teaming with organizations' boards, leadership teams and legal counsel to craft and support effective and appropriate responses.

As an organization focused on responding strategically and effectively to government and commercial audits and inquiries, we provide:

- Systems and transactions assessments and analyses
- Consultation, support and performance of internal investigations
- Forensic evidence collection and analysis
- Third party risk evaluation and management
- Credible, risk-appropriate resolutions, including corrective and preventive actions
- Advice and support for matters involving strategic responses
- Assistance with mandatory and voluntary self-reporting
- Guidance and assistance with interactions with government and other officials
- Crisis response and communications
